The Art TV Unit creates a captivating architectural layer in your living room with its holistic design extending from the lower module to the upper panel and shelving systems. The series' signature fluid lines, rhythmic and artistic texture play on the surfaces, and special panel craftsmanship that sets the stage for light and shadow aesthetics transform the television viewing experience into a visual feast. Leaving behind ordinary and bulky wall units with its refined craftsmanship, Art offers an iconic masterpiece for those who want to showcase aesthetics, originality, and modern luxury at the highest level in the heart of their living room.
